An Etiquette Guide for Casual Carpool on US 36

Avoid being *that* person during your Casual Carpool on US 36 by following our simple etiquette guidelines.

1. Follow the Golden Rule: Treat others (and their car, belongings, etc.) how you would want to be treated.
2. Remember: just because it's casual, doesn't mean there aren't definite boundaries when it comes to riding in someone else's car.
  - a. Don't eat in the car without checking in with the driver first.
  - b. Follow up to a. – don't drink anything but water in the car. Save your morning joe for the office.
  - c. Don't apply your makeup in the car.
  - d. Save all calls for once you're out of the car.
  - e. Make sure you don't smell bad or bring any offensive odors into the car.
3. Drivers, there are rules for you too.
  - a. Clean up your car before picking up riders.
  - b. Don't play your music too loud.
  - c. An amendment to rule b: keep your music/radio selection PG.
  - d. Drive safely. This isn't the Fast and the Furious. Now is not the time to show off how well your car handles fast turns.
4. Safety. Comes. First. Whether you're a rider or a driver, do your best to make the ride to work safe for everybody.
5. We're not all morning people so keep the conversation to a minimum. You can always use your Casual Carpool on US 36 as a way to make friends but read the mood of carpool first.
6. There may be bumps in the road so if a disagreement occurs during your Casual Carpool on US 36 just stay calm and finish the ride.
